

English

Year: 7

“To learn to read is to light a fire; every syllable that is spelled out is a spark.”

Victor Hugo

Course content

Year 7 is the foundation for embedding the skills required to perform confidently at Key Stage 4. The curriculum offers a diverse and enjoyable range of texts with activities designed not only for progress but also to encourage enjoyment and engagement with English as a subject. Texts range from Chaucer to Beddor.

Skills developed

- Inference, explanation, comparing and evaluation of texts
- Understanding of contextual elements
- Writing for different purposes and audiences
- Spelling, punctuation and grammar
- Speaking and listening

Topics covered

- Digital Media
- Imaginative Writing
- Opinion/Non-fiction writing
- Shakespeare
- Fiction post 1300

For more information

Mr O. Jarman

ojarman@wetherbyhigh.co.uk

