

History

Year: 9

'Education is the most power weapon which you can use to change the world'

Nelson Mandela

Course content

History at Year 9 prepares students for their GCSE studies by offering skills development. Throughout the year, different topics have been selected that develop knowledge and understanding of the discipline of History, as well as offering an insight the nature of History. We begin by studying Hitler's Rise to Power, Life in Hitler's Germany and The Holocaust. We then look at why there was a war with no blood shed and the development of The Vietnam War. After Easter, students begin their GCSE studies in History and will look at The Viking Expansion.
