

KS3 DT Curriculum Year 7

Introduction to the design process.... Box project

Introduction to conducting successful research through client interviews and product analysis.

Introduction to creating successful designs through experimentation and development.

Introduction to making successful products by focusing on accuracy and measurement.

Introduction to conducting successful evaluations through reflection and sharing opinions.

Introduction to a range of technical knowledge that runs parallel to the design process.

Enhancing the design process.... MPS project

Enhancing our research skills through client interviews and product analysis.

Enhancing our design skills through experimentation, development and Communication styles.

Enhancing our making skills by focusing on accuracy, measurement and our knowledge of tools.

Enhancing our evaluations through reflection, sharing opinions and suggesting improvements

Enhancing the technical knowledge that runs parallel to the design process.

