

Year 9

English Curriculum

Viewpoint Writing

Dystopian Fiction

The Importance of Structure

How are texts structured to interest an audience?
What decisions do authors make when constructing a text?

Poet Focus: Browning

Jekyll & Hyde

What drives people to commit sins and crimes?

Blood Brothers

How has the context of Britain changed from the Victorian age to the late 20th century? How does the author present his views on life in 20th Century Britain through the play?

Great Speeches

How do writers present their viewpoint on social and political topics using speeches as a form of protest writing?
How do writers craft their writing to unify, motivate and persuade their audience?

Author Focus: Dickens

Society and Poverty in the 1800's

What is the context of Victorian Britain? How does Dickens reflect his experiences of living in Victorian Britain through his writing?

Representations of Gender

